The initial poster design by Lisa Pappalardo was shown to everyone. Last year's schedule of events, for Goldfield Days was discussed as it will pertain to this year. The historical town tour was discussed. A town wide yard sale was discussed for Sunday as part of Goldfield Days weekend. Anyone who wants an event included on the schedule needs to get the information to Lisa Pappalardo. $1500 sponsor for Goldfield Days has been received from Mineral Ridge. Dominic Pappalardo will pursue two more donors for the same amount. Jeremy has a band for Goldfield Days. There is one room reserved at the Santa Fe for the band. A correct Wounded Warriors contact has been found. $650 was raised last year for them, the check will go out next week. There are a lot of companies advertising for Wounded Warriors; this contribution will go directly to the correct organization. Everyone check to Chamber website that their information is correct and current and inform Lisa Pappalardo or Malek Davarpanah of any needed changes.

Malek informed the group that Ruth Lee will be resigning as the Chamber Treasurer next month.

Malek Davarpanah also said he will be resigning next month; he has a lot of family business to take care of. Malek reminded everyone his tenure as President was only supposed to be temporary and it has been a year and a half. Malek said he talked to different people and no one has said they want to do it. Next month the Chamber will have to appoint individuals to fill these positions till the next scheduled voting cycle.

Malek said he will go out to different areas to put up posters. Malek encourages everyone to help with Goldfield Days as they have always planned. It was discussed about having more communications with Jeremy and Amanda to have good coordination for Goldfield Days.

Malek reminded everyone we need a replacement for Ruth Lee and for himself.

Carl Brownfield made a motion to adjourn, Lisa Pappalardo second, meeting adjourned 7:45 pm.
